

Name: _____

Date: _____

Period: _____

Alone in the Wilderness Book Club Book Project

This project will show that you read and understood your book club book. Choose a different project than you chose for the My Side of the Mountain project. It is worth 30 points; use the rubric to make sure you get full credit. As always, turn in a revised draft with your final version.

The Alone in the Wilderness book club books are

Julie of the Wolves by Jean Craighead George

The River by Gary Paulsen

A Week in the Woods by Andrew Clements

Never Say Die by Will Hobbs

Your options are

- Write a script for a key scene from the book
- Write a song or poem related to the book
- Write an alternate ending for the book
- Write the first chapter of a sequel to the book
- Write a key part of the story from a different character's point of view
- Write and draw a picture book about a key scene
- Write and draw a storyboard about a key scene (12 squares)

This project will be due on Monday, November 24.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Period: _____

Alone in the Wilderness Project Rubric

Conventions Writing shows the proper use of conventions including spelling, capitalization, punctuation, and grammar.	2	4	6	8	10
Understanding of the Story It is clear that the student read and understood the book. Events and characters from the story are portrayed correctly.	2	4	6	8	10
Creativity and Effort Student shows originality and applies critical thinking in creating an artistic and well-written product. The project shows sustained effort, has been revised and edited, and the final version is neat and polished.	2	4	6	8	10